

JANNAF Policy on Papers and Presentations

The “JANNAF Publication Clearance Form” must be submitted with the appropriate information and signature, indicating the approval of your Releasing Official to present and publish your paper and/or presentation.

JANNAF policy requires that you submit a publication clearance form along with your paper and presentation prior to the meeting. JANNAF adheres to its policy of NO Paper, NO Publication Clearance, NO Podium. Clearance forms are also required for presentations that are part of a Workshop or Specialist Session.

The form can be found on page 2. Download and save the form before completing.

Distribution Statement Usage in JANNAF

By signing this JANNAF Publication Clearance form, the releasing official is permitting the JHU WSE Energetics Research Group, the JANNAF Support Contractor, to publish and disseminate this material in accordance with the criteria outlined on this form.

Releasing Official

The Releasing Official should be the person responsible for approving the release of your paper/presentation for primary distribution by JANNAF under the markings you have designated.

- An author should only sign as the Releasing Official for their own work if:
 - The work was internally funded and they're the president or CEO of their company (contractor).
